

December 12, 2011

Dear friend,

Support comes in many forms: reading our newsletter, contributing to our blog, attending our events, following us on Twitter or Facebook, making in-kind donations, writing a check, and most importantly, passing on the knowledge about HIV Prevention. The best THANK YOU I can think of is to share what some of our program participants are saying about what Transdiaspora Network (TDN) has done for them:

My name is Chanelle, I am 17 years old.

“Being in TDN has made me want to help not only my community but my family, friends, and even the world. Our conversations helped change our understanding of what’s wrong and what’s right. I even got one girl to talk to her mom about HIV/AIDS so that she wouldn’t be alone...For me, that’s the happiest thing I’ve ever done.”

Hello, my name is Nalyn, I am 15 years old

“TDN taught me that in life, when you commit to something, you have to follow through on it. It has made me more responsible, my knowledge about HIV has grown, and it has opened my mind a lot. Further it made me talk to my friends about HIV, what it can do to you, and how to prevent it from spreading.”

Hi, my name is Keyana, I am 16 years old

“TDN has impacted me in two ways so far. It made me realize that HIV/AIDS is a real problem that a lot of people aren’t fully aware of. It has also given me the opportunity to work with other people who are passionate about what they do and try their very best to spread awareness of the disease... Any donation will help and be greatly appreciated. So why not just help us “Talk It Out?””

As you gear up to support the causes you love this holiday season, please consider making a gift to our organization so we can continue developing our culturally-sensitive prevention programs where at risk teens are finding their voice, and using it to protect their bodies and their futures. A gift of any size can make a difference: $10, $25 or $50, whatever you can give, brings us closer to the teens we serve.

To know more about our programs, please visit us at www.transdiasporanetwork.org.

Sincerely,

Ariel Rojas | President & Founder

P.S. Please make a secure donation online at www.transdiasporanetwork.org or send your gift to Transdiaspora Network, 159 Baltic Street, Suite 8, Brooklyn, NY 11201. Make check payable to Transdiaspora Network, Inc.

All gifts are 100% tax deductible. TDN is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization.

TDN program participants

PROMOTING PREVENTION
One Teen at a Time.

Board of Directors

Ariel Rojas
President & Founder

Sophie Cardona
Treasurer

Elkhair Balla

Alexis Diaz

Casey Reckman

Susan Schwarz

Honorary Board Member

Dr. J. Michael Turner, PhD

Transdiaspora Network (TDN) is an leading human capacity building non-profit organization conducting culturally-oriented HIV prevention and awareness activities in Brooklyn, New York. We communicate with at-risk youth, mainly of Caribbean descent, and empower them to develop their sense of personal responsibility in their relationship with the community.

Talk Things Out !